

Our unit is full of opportunities including boat inspections, vacation house checks, home security evaluations, traffic control, parking enforcement, parades, community events and more.

We provide inspections so homeowners can remove junk vehicles off their property.

We provide disabled parking and shuttle services at the Kitsap County Fair.

KITSAP COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE CITIZENS ON PATROL

Citizens On Patrol help keep Kitsap County roadways clear of abandoned vehicles to free up time of Sheriff's Office deputies to focus on providing other high-quality public service.

The Citizens On Patrol unit of the Kitsap County Sheriff's Office is comprised of dedicated community members who commit time and knowledge in meaningful roles that helps protect the public and make a direct impact on the community.

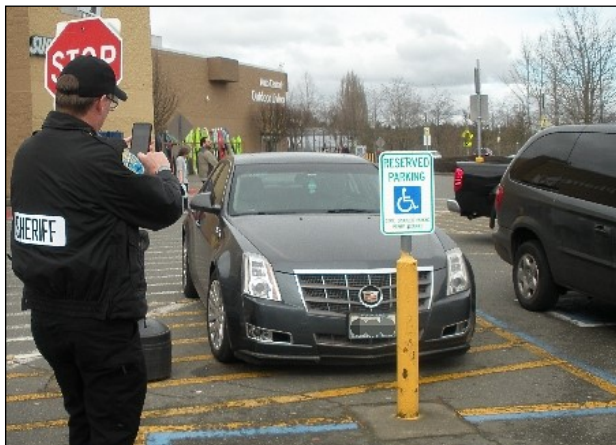

COPs gain a sense of personal satisfaction, teamwork and comradery in their valuable roles as citizen volunteers.

Our unit embraces Community-Oriented Policing.

The support and contributions of Citizens On Patrol effectively make Kitsap County a safer place to live, work and visit.

Community partnerships are vital to our success and we thrive on fostering positive relationships.

Our unit fairly enforces parking laws to protect the rights and access of disabled residents.
